The drawing illustrates a cross-section of a kitchen island with a curved top. The structure is supported by a base with a hollow space (Hohlraumboden) and is anchored into a concrete slab (OG2). The island features a central 'Bar/Theke' (bar/counter) and a 'Küche' (kitchen) section on the right. The bar/counter section is divided into six compartments (Korpus 1-6) and includes a back wall (Rückwand) and a bar top (Theke). The kitchen section includes a wall (GK-Wand) and a door (Türsturz). The drawing includes detailed dimensions and material specifications for various components.
